Supervisors' Meeting.
The regular meeting of the Chesterneld Board of Supervisors will be held to-morrow at the courthouse. Important business will be transacted, and the summer work will be concluded.

Cars to Broad Street.

The new route for the Hull Street cars will go tate effect to-day. Using Ninth Street going and Seventh Street ecturing, a loop will be made at Broad Street, and the cars will return down Main Street over the Mayo Bridge. An even ten-minute schedule will be maintained, which requires that an extra cars but on the line. The extra cars put on to-morrow will be switched back at Fourteenth and Main Streets.

outhsiders will now be able to go to Broad Street without changing, and transfers can be obtained to any city line. The change was secured largely through the efforts of the South Richmond Democratic Club, of which Carter cl. Jones is president, and the South Richmond and Chesterfield Business
